

SITHFAB009A Provide Responsible Service of Alcohol

About this unit

This unit satisfies the mandatory training requirements for responsible sale and service of alcohol (RSA) under state or territory legislation.

Workshops cover the specifics of dealing with alcohol including any local Accord Agreements. It is delivered face to face with an experienced industry professional and covers real life scenarios. You will also be able to interact with other students and share experiences and most importantly, you have a lecturer with you that you can discuss the content with and ask questions as needed.

Qualification information

This unit covers one unit from the Certificate III in Hospitality and the Diploma of Hospitality. Should you work in the hospitality industry you may be eligible to fast track or receive recognition of your skills for all or part of these qualifications. For more information please contact the lecturer.
